

June Volunteer of the Month Celebrated

L to R: Angie Leadabrand, Sioux Council Boy Scouts Senior District Executive; Loretta Crapser, Volunteer of the Month

The Helpline Center congratulates Loretta Crapser on being named the June 2021 Volunteer of the Month, an area-wide award program sponsored by the Helpline Center and First Bank & Trust.

Loretta has served with the Sioux Council Boy Scouts for 17 years and is the organization's Family Friends of Scouting Chair. She runs the Family Fundraising Campaign for the Arrowhead District that includes Brookings and the surrounding area. She is also a unit volunteer and helps units provide the scouting programs to hundreds of youth. This year under her leadership, the Family Campaign surpassed its goal, allowing the district to go above its overall goal.

Loretta is the volunteer that is always eager to help in any way she can. She is given a task and it is well known that not only will it be accomplished; it will be done with accuracy. She is dedicated to youth inside and outside of the program and wants to give everyone the opportunity to be a part of the scouting program.

Staff with the Sioux Council Boy Scouts said, "Loretta is an amazing volunteer and is someone we can always count on."

Congratulations, Loretta, on being our much-deserved June Volunteer of the Month!
